The Mystery of the Fire Dragon Dust Jacket and Print to Debut

Among the most exotic covers in the original series of Nancy Drew® mysteries, Literarture® has licensed the glamorous 1961 Rudy Nappi painting for The Mystery of the Fire Dragon from the New York Public Library for our recreation of the exceedingly rare dust jacket. The print is slated to make its premiere in Literarture®'s Nancy Drew® Dust Jacket Collection in February.

In addition, the original painting, much larger and vivid in color than the old dust jackets suggest, will be available promotionally to Literarture customers for a limited time as an individually numbered, 11" x 13.5" print. Only 100 will be produced.

Coming in the spring, dust jacket restorations of such classics as Nancy's Mysterious Letter and The Secret of the Wooden Lady will be added, as well as prints for titles released only as picture cover hardbacks, including The Invisible Intruder and Mystery of the Glowing Eye. There will also be more chances to vote for your favorite series art!

Beautifully restored vintage art prints available in individually numbered limited editions of 200 each.

New for January

Recent releases include a gorgeous restoration of Bill Gillies' 1950 revision for The Mystery at Lilac Inn, Rudy Nappi's romantic cover for The Clue of the Velvet Mask and the colorful portrait of Nancy and fellow adventurers by Bill Gillies for 1951's The Clue of the Black Keys, all presented with fresh, series consistent titles and classic vintage ads!

Bill Gillies, 1950-39%

Rudy Nappi, 1965-14%
