Gillies' The Secret of the Wooden Lady Premieres

In 1950, Bill Gillies was tapped to design contemporary artwork for the Nancy Drew Mystery Stories and modernize the covers of vintage titles from the 1930s. His first original cover art for the series was 1950's marine mystery, The Secret of the Wooden Lady. Literarture's newly released dust jacket restoration is of a 1950 printing. This was the first volume of the series to feature one of Gillies' most lasting contributions, the Nancy Drew spine stamp, featured on all collection titles.

Coming later in May and June, dust jacket restorations of such classics as The Mystery of the Ivory Charm will be added, as well as prints for titles released only as picture cover hardbacks, including The Phantom of Pine Hill, The Invisible Intruder and Mystery of the Glowing Eye. The winner of last month's poll to determine the favorite cover of The Clue in the Old Album will also make its debut later this summer. Check our website regularly for details and updates!

Beautifully restored vintage art prints available in individually numbered limited editions of 200 each.

Current Poll Results

Our March poll results shot down any hopes of adding Polly Bolian's Cameo series art to the series and, in an April twist, Rudy Nappi's 1967 stylishly updated cover for The Clue in the Old Album defeated Russell H. Tandy's own lovely, 1947 original for inclusion in the collection. In our new poll for the month of May, visitors to the www.literarture.net site are currently recommending Rudy Nappi's 1966 art for The Hidden Staircase over Bill Gillies' 1950 update for the Nancy Drew® Dust Jacket Collection. Literarture To Host Table At Nancy Drew Convention

Literarture will host a table at the 2007 Nancy Drew Sleuths Convention at the Hilton hotel in historic Pasadena, California on Saturday, June 16. The event coincides with the premiere of the new Warner Brothers Nancy Drew movie! Share Nancy Drew memorabilia with other enthusiasts, visit old Hollywood and meet Kendall and I in person to get a first glimpse at the new dust jackets we'll be unveiling throughout the summer! For more convention information, be sure to visit www.nancydrewsleuths.com.

Available only through www.literarture.net while supplies last!
